IMPRISONMENT

The defendant, HAYDEN BEARD, is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons (BOP) to be imprisoned for a term of TIME-SERVED.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of FIFTEEN (15) years.

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- ( 1 ) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- ( 2 ) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- ( 3 ) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- ( 4 ) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- ( 5 ) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- ( 6 ) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- ( 7 ) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- ( 8 ) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

- (9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- (10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- (11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- (12) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- (13) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

In addition the defendant shall:

not commit another federal, state, or local crime;

not illegally possess controlled substances;

cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer;

not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any dangerous weapon;

report in person to the U.S. Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released from the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons within 72 hours of release; submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court;

comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense;

take notice that in addition to submitting to drug testing in accordance with the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, at the direction of the probation officer the defendant shall obtain a substance abuse assessment and participate in any recommended treatment. The treatment program must be approved by the United States Probation Office and the program must include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program. In addition to urinalysis testing that may be a part of a formal drug treatment program, the defendant shall submit up to 12 urinalysis tests per month;

not consume any alcoholic beverages;

possess or use a computer or cellular telephone with access to any on-line service at any time (including employment) without prior written approval from the probation officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, e-mail system, or any public or private computer network system. The defendant shall permit routine inspection of his/her computer system or any other computer system maintained at the defendant's residence to include hard drives and any media storage materials, to confirm adherence to this condition. The inspection shall be no more intrusive than is necessary to ensure compliance with the defendant's conditions of supervision. The defendant shall inform his/her employer, or other third party who may be impacted by this condition, of this computer-related restriction and the computer inspection provisions of the condition;

provide the probation officer with any requested financial information to verify there have been no payments to an Internet Service Provider or entities that provide access to the Internet via computer, cell phone, PDA, or other electronic media device;

have no contact with any person under the age of 18 years without adult supervision, including his/her own family members, nor attempt contact except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer in consultation with the defendant's treatment provider;

not seek employment, engage in leisure activities or loiter near places designated primarily for minors such as schools, parks, and arcades, which may bring the defendant into unsupervised contact with any person under the age of 18 years. Contact is defined as any transaction occurring face to face, over the telephone, via mail, over the internet, and any third party communication;

not be employed in any capacity which is likely to cause the defendant to come into unsupervised contact with children, except under circumstances approved in advance by the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause the defendant to come into direct contact with children, except under circumstances approved in advance by the defendant's probation officer;

not possess any material showing sexually explicit conduct as defined under 18 U.S.C. § 2256 or as deemed inappropriate by his probation officer and/or treatment provider, or patronize any location or website where such material or entertainment is featured. To assist in monitoring this condition, the defendant shall allow, at the defendant's expense, the probation office to install monitoring software or hardware on any computer(s) or electronic device(s) in order to determine adherence to this condition. Further, the defendant shall provide the probation officer with any requested financial information to verify any Internet Service Provider account information or entities that provide access to the Internet via computer, cellular telephone, tablet, or any other electronic media device; conform with sex offender registration laws and other laws which exist in any jurisdiction where he resides or visits, within 24 hours of release on supervision or any change in circumstances;

submit to a warrantless search of person, residence, vehicle, personal effects, place of employment, and other property by a federal probation or pretrial services officer or other law enforcement officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband, a violation of a condition of supervision, or a violation of law. Contraband includes, but is not limited to, any computers, electronic media, videotapes, CD's, DVD's, Zip drives, PDA's or other electronic media storage device that may include images of child pornography. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; participate in a program of sex offender assessment and treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as he is released from the program. This assessment, treatment and the entirety of supervised release may include physiological testing such as polygraph to assist in planning, case monitoring, and supervision. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or tests as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of release. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in treatment and sign any necessary releases for any records imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the supervising United States Probation Officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider(s). Following completion of any sex offender treatment program, the defendant shall continue to submit to polygraph examination at the direction of the probation officer to assist with monitoring any perceived risks of danger to the community and adherence to the terms and conditions of supervision. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any polygraph testing;

take notice that until such time that the fine and/or restitution is paid in full, the defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks, and shall not incur any new debts or apply for credit without the prior approval of the probation officer;

take notice that at the direction of the probation officer the defendant shall obtain a mental health assessment and participate in any recommended mental health treatment. The treatment program must be approved by the United States Probation Office. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program; and, adhere to the conditions of supervised release previously ordered in the attached certified Judgment.

FINE/RESTITUTION

The Court does not order a fine or costs of incarceration because the defendant does not have the financial resources or future earning capacity to pay a fine or costs of incarceration.

Restitution is not ordered because there is no victim other than society at large.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. In addition to submitting to drug testing in accordance with the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, at the direction of the probation officer the defendant shall obtain a substance abuse assessment and participate in any recommended treatment. The treatment program must be approved by the United States Probation Office and the program must include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program. In addition to urinalysis testing that may be a part of a formal drug treatment program, the defendant shall submit up to 12 urinalysis tests per month.
2. The defendant shall not consume any alcohol and shall not possess any alcoholic beverages during the period of supervision. If this condition interferes with potential employment, the defendant shall discuss the employment requirements with the probation officer and may request a modification of the condition.
3. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or cellular telephone with access to any on-line service at any time (including employment) without prior written approval from the probation officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, e-mail system, or any public or private computer network system. The defendant shall permit routine inspection of his/her computer system or any other computer system maintained at the defendant's residence to include hard drives and any media storage materials, to confirm adherence to this condition. The inspection shall be no more intrusive than is necessary to ensure compliance with the defendant's conditions of supervision. The defendant shall inform his/her employer, or other third party who may be impacted by this condition, of this computer-related restriction and the computer inspection provisions of the condition.
4. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with any requested financial information to verify there have been no payments to an Internet Service Provider or entities that provide access to the Internet via computer, cell phone, PDA, or other electronic media device.
5. The defendant shall have no contact with any person under the age of 18 years without adult supervision, including his/her own family members, nor attempt contact except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer in consultation with the defendant's treatment provider.
6. 13. During the term of supervision, the defendant shall, while eligible, apply for the Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend (PFD) and shall apply the PFD toward any outstanding restitution or fine owed in this case.
14. At the direction of the probation officer the defendant shall obtain a mental health assessment and participate in any recommended mental health treatment. The treatment program must be approved by the United States Probation Office. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program.
15. Upon release from imprisonment and upon arrival in the State of Alaska, Defendant must comply with any applicable health mandates issued by the state and local authorities. **
16. Defendant must complete a Traveler Declaration Form. **
17. Defendant must submit to a COVID-19 test within 14 days of his arrival in the State of Alaska and provide the test results to the U.S. Probation Office. **
18. Upon arrival in the State of Alaska, Defendant must immediately proceed to his residence and complete a 14-day quarantine period. During the 14-day self-quarantine period, Defendant is permitted to leave his residence only for emergency medical purposes that require immediate medical attention or hospitalization. **
19. If Defendant's test result is positive, he must continue to self-quarantine and remain in his residence until he obtains medical documentation that he has recovered from COVID-19. **
